A letter from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed!

It is difficult for me to fathom that Easter is here already. It seemed that not all that long ago we were being signed with ashes as a call to repentance. Today we are being invited to break open colored eggs and to, once again, indulge in whatever delectable amenities we put aside for the 40 days of Lent. Perhaps more than any other food, the egg is the one most associated with Easter and with springtime in general. Early civilizations such as the Persians, Phoenicians, Hindus and Egyptians all believed that the world began as an egg. Once this egg was broken, the yolk became the sun and the rest of the egg became the earth. The egg was so revered by the Egyptians and Greeks, that they buried them with their dead as expressions of hope in the afterlife. Recognizing that the egg was the beginning of life for so many creatures, it became the quintessential symbol for springtime when the earth underwent a rebirth after the death of winter.

Because Christians very comfortably re-appropriated symbols and rituals from Pagan culture, the egg was a logical feature to be claimed for their annual celebration of the resurrection. Just as Christ died and rose to new life, breaking forth from the confines of the tomb, so the egg became a visual image of the new life experienced by those who were baptized at the Easter vigil coming forth, as they did, from the watery grave of baptismal font.

Eventually Christians began to color the eggs used at their Easter feasts that were intended to break their Lenten fasts. In some countries these eggs were always dyed red to symbolize the blood of Christ. In other cultures, such as Ukraine and Poland, the eggs were brightly colored with elaborate and intricate geometric designs to highlight the solemn and extravagant dimension of Easter. Often times, parents would hide these Easter eggs throughout their homes and around their properties inviting children to hunt for these precious food items as a reminder of those faithful women of the gospels who went searching for the tomb of Jesus on that first Easter Sunday morn only to find that he had burst his three day prison and was now alive in their midst.

With the Protestant Reformation in the 16th and 17th centuries, the tradition of Easter eggs was banned in several countries because of its Pagan origins. But by the middle of the 19th century it began to remerge especially in America after Abraham Lincoln hosted an egg rolling contest on the White House grounds.

Gratefully, the Easter egg, whether a true egg hard boiled and colored, or one made of chocolate (or another edible substance), remains a cherished element to our contemporary Easter rituals. Not only are eggs a recognized source of protein for our bodies, in the context of Easter, they offer a spiritual nutrition for our souls and a unique lesson for transmitting our faith. As we begin the 50 day celebration of the Lord's resurrection today, may we relish these humble and sacred gifts that come to us from the earth. As we break them open, may we be reminded of the risen Lord who breaks into our lives offering us himself as food that sustains us in our journey of life. May we also imitate him as we, in turn, break ourselves open in service to our brothers and sisters throughout this season of joy.

Easter Blessings,

Fr. Halunif, O.S.B.

SJA Throwback — The Evolving Sanctuary

May Crowning Procession, 1946 (Courtesy of Gerry McNellis)

This archival photo depicts the procession at St. Joan of Arc's 1946 May Crowning, a beautiful tradition in which the youth of the church symbolically crown the figure of Mary as Queen of Heaven and of our lives.

But look more closely and we can see shifts in the sanctuary that reflect changes in the church and society. The side altars dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Sacred Heart of Jesus have been enhanced with lighting, including a spotlight shining on each statue. Backdrop drapery was also hung, which added contrast to the figures. The parish gave the interior a new paint job highlighting the white marble of the altar with a darker shade (probably blue) on the walls of the sanctuary, as well as the ceiling.

Another addition are the American and Vatican flags mounted in the sanctuary. Only one year had passed since the end of World War II, and the parish was not only showing its patriotic colors, but pride in her patron saint. Added to the pinnacle of the gothic revival altar is a new statue of St. Joan of Arc. To install the statue, the top piece of the altar had been removed. Though not the practice today, the figure of St. Joan front and center was commanding. Today, St. Joan greets us as we enter the narthex and is a reminder of her continuing patronage of our parish.

"Spiritual Cleansing"

As we have reached the end of Lent and now rejoice in the resurrection of Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior, we have a sense of renewed spirit, a fresh start and new beginning. It is a perfect time to be mindful of our spiritual self-care routines. Our faith practices; things we do that draw upon our faith resources and commitments are known to reduce stress, relieve anxiety, help our body heal and help us build stronger and more meaningful social connections. Private or group prayer, focused and mindful breathing, meditation on scripture, and peaceful time in nature are excellent spiritual self-care activities. To learn more about how your spiritual practices can help you overcome life's physical and mental challenges, consider joining in on some of the seven free virtual "Heart and Soul Program" workshops hosted by Advocate-Aurora health Care, aah-faithhealth@aah.org.

Question: Why is it so important that we register in a parish? Isn't it good enough that we go to Mass?

Answer:

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times, young adults who have moved away for years think they are still signed up under their parents. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social, and ministerial activities of your parish. Your registration affects the parish in many ways. Census numbers can determine how many priests are assigned to a church, what benefits and obligations the community has to the diocese, and how Masses, Confessions, and devotions are planned and scheduled.

Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for taxes. Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.

To register at St. Joan of Arc, please contact the Parish Offices at 630-963-4500 or go to our website at <https://sjalisle.org/new-parishioner-registration>.
